English Proficiency is required for International applicants: IELTS 5.5 or equivalent. All students will be required to sit for an Internal English Test to validate current levels.

Note: Applicants identified with lower (than 5.5) English Proficiency levels will be required to enrol in a specialist English Language provider to upgrade their English prior to entry into a vocational course. All College programs will be delivered in English.

Outcome

This qualification reflects professional accounting job roles in financial services and other industries, including tax agents, accounts payable and accounts receivable officers, payroll service providers, and employees performing a range of accounting tasks for organisations in a range of industries. Individuals in these roles apply solutions to a range of often complex problems and analyse and evaluate information from a variety of sources. They apply initiative to plan, coordinate and evaluate their own work and provide guidance to others within defined guidelines.

This qualification includes units that comprise an approved Tax Practitioner Board (TPB) course in Australian taxation law and commercial law, which are relevant for registration as a tax agent. Persons seeking registration with the TPB should check current registration requirements with the TPB, as registration requirements are reviewed regularly.

Course Information

Introduction

There are no specific entry requirements for this program, and it is targeted for international students. The development of the program was with consultation with industry advisors to respond to a need that has developed for additional educational vacancies for specialist aged care industry positions that will benefit from Nationally Recognised Training.

Several units of competency require the use of a computer. You are requested to supply your own computer device such as a laptop, notebook or pad that is capable of Wi-Fi connectivity and loaded with the Microsoft suite of programs. If this is not possible, a student will be supplied, by the College, a laptop computer, purchased for them but the material fee will increase by $500.00. The new, supplied computer will become the property and responsibility of the student. No maintenance responsibility will be accepted by the College.

As a candidate, you will be required to show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role.

This course is accredited by the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) and is compliant with the Australian Qualification Framework.

Duration and Conduct	The training program will be a maximum of 36 weeks plus 16 weeks of breaks as programmed recreation and provision for intervention strategies including two (2) weeks after the completion of the proposed academic program for approved late submissions and completion of intervention strategies. There are limits to how many students can access a program at any one time; institution based will be limited to 25 students. A student will be offered the entire 11 UOC prior to exit or a component of a qualification dependent on their enrolment requests

Assessment

Westminster College will use a combination of assessment methods and approaches which will involve collecting a range of evidence for ensuring consistency of competency. Assessment may include written assignments, projects and portfolio of evidence. The portfolios may include forms, templates and resources produced, documents completed and handouts.

Course Conduct

A students' program is considered to have completed of a successful academic program with a determination of COMPETENT in 11 Units of Competency over an academic instruction period of 36 study weeks with a four (4) recreational breaks to total 52 weeks. The delivery method that will be available is face to face institution based with an online component. A two (2) week additional period is made available, at the end of the scheduled academic program, for the submission of any approved outstanding assessments and any re assessment. Any successful UOC completed but is less than the entire qualification will be recognised by the issue of a Statement of Attainment. The scheduled breaks during the year will also be used for the application of intervention methods for affected student's and a term break for others; there is a programmed extended break during December/January.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) - is the formal recognition of the skills and knowledge a person has regardless of how or where these skills may have been attained, that is, through formal or informal training work experience, (paid and unpaid) voluntary work and life experience. The evidence provided for RPL must address the currency of competencies being assessed. Westminster College confirms that all students, potential or actual, of all offered accredited courses are provided with full recognition of their current skills and knowledge. Westminster College promotes acknowledgment of 'non-traditional' forms of learning as valid pathways for recognition of competency achievement during the RPL assessment process. RPL will result in exemptions and it can be determined by applying for an application from your agent or directly from Westminster College.

Attendance Requirement

To maintain satisfactory course progress for 36 weeks of the course duration, a student is expected to maintain satisfactory attendance, as well as participate in classroom learning activities. Students are also required to successfully complete all their assessment tasks. This represents satisfactory course progress.

Assessment

Where a student fails one (1) or more assessment methods within a single Unit of Competency (UOC), they are to be re-assessed once, free of charge, and this must be completed within the immediate operational term or as soon as possible following that term, as per Westminster College's re-assessment policy. If the student does not pass one (1) or more assessment methods following the free re-assessment period they are to be offered two (2) more opportunities for re assessment, with the provision, that they must be charged a fee for each opportunity within the immediate following term or as soon as possible following that term.
